Harmony Day

On Monday 21st March Hastings Primary School will be celebrating Harmony Day.

Students are encouraged to wear a touch of orange (socks, ribbon) and provide a gold coin donation. Donations will go towards installing a seat next to the rock river path that has been installed for the 150th Celebration.

The Student Representative Council will run activities for all students throughout the week to celebrate Harmony Day.

Maintenance Works

The turf on the basketball courts outside the administration building is being laid this week. The Victoria Street gate is still not available for use. Please continue to drop off your children via the Hodgins Road Gate and be mindful when parking on Victoria Street for heavy machinery.

End of Term

Please remember to mark the end of term date in your calendar. Students will finish on Friday 8th April at 2:30pm.

Sentral Parent Portal

We have had a number of parents sign up for the Sentral Parent Portal. For anyone who still requires the application please download, register and contact the office for your unique code.
